Private classes:

One to one or groups for one-and-a-half-hours at selected hotels, in the Moksha studio or at homes/halls.

R300 for members, R400 for non-members - excluding transport costs.

Courses:

We offer beginner courses covering philosophy, asanas (postures), pranayama (breathing), bhandas (locks) and meditation.

We also offer intermediate courses suitable for those who have completed a beginners course, or who are familiar with the primary series and have developed a regular practice and wish to deepen this.

Our various other courses offered cover topics such as Pranayama, Meditation and the Second Series.

Ashtanga:

An aerobic, muscle-shaping, mind-sculpting, physically demanding workout. Students move through a series, moving from one posture to another to build strength, flexibility, and stamina. Often appeals to athletes and those who enjoy high-energy exercise. Students are introduced to the fundamentals of posture and breath.

Assisted Self Practice (ASP):

Traditional self practice class which allows the individual to develop at their own pace, with teacher assistance.

Hatha Yoga and Open Yoga (all levels):

Emphasis on specific areas of the body as well as other yoga traditions. All levels welcome.

Power:

A dynamic flowing and meditative practice that brings a focus on breath together with a sequence of traditional postures (asana) and movement (vinyasa).
